

I believe that the proposed changes are not in the best interest of the general public and will only serve to degrade the free and open exchange of ideas. We have already seen the negative effects of the changes made in the regulations circa 1996. We need more diverse ownership. The further concentration of power will only lead to further misuse and biased use of the public's airwaves.